

EXPECT TO TRAP $200,000 PACKAGE THIEVES BY BILLS

Mail Robbers' First Attempt to Change $10,000 Banknotes
Means Capture.

RUN ON BANK FEARED.

Postal Authorities Are Apprehensive, but Lost Package
Was Insured, It Is Said.

The National Bank of Havana is out $200,000, which was sent by registered mail to the National Park Bank of New York, and Post-Office Inspectors, Secret Service men and the protective machinery of the American Bankers' Association are today investigating, both in Cuba and New York. When the registered mail pouch from Havana was opened in the post-office Thursday the loss of the package was discovered, but the amount contained was not known then. All the Government is responsible for is $20, the rest of the risk being taken by insurance companies. When the loss was discovered the name of the consignee was withheld and today the Post-Office authorities refused to give it out, fearing a run on the bank. Cashier Maurice H. Ewer of the National Park Bank, however, spoke freely on the matter, and let it be understood that the Bank of Havana would not be the ultimate loser, as the package was covered by insurance.

PACKAGE HELD TWENTY $10,000 BILLS.

"We are the representatives of the Havana Bank and are accustomed to receiving balances of credit by mail; in fact, that is the usual method adopted for the transfer of money. In all cases large amounts are insured, as the Government responsibility is slight. No loss occurs to this institution, but we have a moral interest in the matter."

"The money was sent by steamer from Havana to Key West and by rail. Where it was stolen is not yet known, but with three men and secret service men and the others investigating it seems the money should be found."

"What were the denominations of the bills?"

"There were twenty $10,000 bills, and the numbers are known to have been telegraphed all over the country."

At the post-office Assistant Post-Office Inspector in charge H. A. Barber was very reluctant to discuss the case. He would not give out the name of the bank sending the money or even admit Cashier Ewer's name. He said the right bank to the reporter. His unwillingness he explained in this way:

THIEF CANNOT DISPOSE OF HIS LOOT.

"So far I have only the report of a very reputable concern, which states the money is missing. What was in the package I do not officially know; in fact, officially, nothing definite is known at all. How the money was shipped and who is responsible for the loss cannot be stated at this time. Fortune go through the mails every day and are covered by insurance. Our side is to investigate and punish the thief, but we have nothing to do with the amount of the loss above $20."

In Mr. Barber's opinion the thief cannot dispose of the money.

"It was all in $10,000 United States bank notes, so far as I can learn," he said. "Now, there are only 2,000 of these bills in existence, and no bank would exchange one without investigating the person presenting it."

SIX KILLED IN AUTOMOBILE CUT IN TWO BY TROLLEY.

By arrangement he was sentenced to ten years on a charge of manslaughter in the first degree because he is a consumptive, not expected to live more than six months.

$10,000 to Home Rule by Chicagoans.

CHICAGO, Oct. 7.—Word that $10,000 was pledged by a Chicago audience to promote the battle for home rule in Ireland was cabled to-day by William H. K. Redmond, brother of the Irish parliamentary leader, John Redmond, to his friends across the Atlantic. The money was subscribed last night at the meeting of the united Irish societies of Chicago.

PARLIAMENT MEETS, WITH STORMY SESSION AHEAD ON BIG BILLS

Liberals Ready for Fight to Carry Through Home Rule Church Measure and Election Reform.

LONDON, Oct. 7.—Parliament convened late to-day for what promises to be the most tempestuous session in years. Three matters of vital importance are to be disposed of—Irish home rule, disestablishment of the Church of England in Wales and election reform. The Liberal administration supports all these measures. The Conservatives will fight them. Already they have fifty-five pages of amendments to the Home Rule bill on hand simply to delay it. The Liberals will resist delay, however, by drastic application of the "guillotine," which limits the time for debate, and the "kangaroo," whereby the majority disregard frivolous amendments.

The Church of England is part of the aristocracy's machinery for retention of power, and the proposal to rob it of its official standing in Wales is bitterly resented. The Election Reform bill seeks to abolish the system by which the aristocracy have multiplied the number of their own votes about ten times and deprived the working classes of approximately one million of theirs.

The Liberal administration's position is precarious. Counting its own members of the House of Commons, the forty-two Labor members and the seventy-six Irish, it has a majority of 130, but the Labor men may secede at any time and the Irish are only interested in keeping the administration in office until home rule is assured.

Ambition of Oscar Strauss if He Is Elected Governor.

NYACK, N. Y., Oct. 7.—Oscar R. Strauss addressed an audience of 150 persons in the Nyack Theatre here to-day. "When I get to Albany—and I am going there," he added—"the door will be open to the people of this State. You won't need a card of introduction from either of the parties or the bosses of both parties or the bosses of the State. I am going to Albany to give this State the millennium but on a honest business administration."

YOU'RE BILIOUS! YOUR LIVER AND BOWELS ARE INACTIVE—"CASCARETS"

Furred Tongue, Bad Taste, Indigestion, Sallow Skin and Miserable Headaches come from a torpid liver and constipated bowels, which cause your stomach to become filled with undigested food, which sours and ferments like garbage in a swill barrel. That's the first step to untold misery—indigestion, foul gases, bad breath, yellow skin, mental fears, everything that is horrible and nauseating. A Cascaret to-night will surely straighten you out by morning—a 10-cent box will keep your head clear, stomach sweet, liver and bowels regular and make you feel cheerful and bully for months.

Don't forget your children—their little insides need a good, gentle, cleansing, too, occasionally.
